Oh look around,
and everyone just seems to get you down,
the words you try to say just can't be found,
I think about it all the time

Oh,
And so it seems,
you've lost your hopes, can you keep your dreams?
and everything that you will always mean, I'm thinking maybe it's a sign

And you say you do, oh, but do you?
How could this be love? This couldn't be love

And you say you do, but do you?
How could this be love? This couldn't be love

The city sleeps, so everyone can keep their peace,
and I'm just hoping I don't fall too deep, so that I can't get out in time

Oh, and fire burns all through the night, and I'm just hoping I'll be there after the fight, hear the end and see the light,
I think that it's time, yeah yeah

And you say you do, oh, but do you?
How could this be love? This couldn't be love, yeah

And you say you do, but do you?
How could this be love? This couldn't be love.
