A murder, single and embracing all doubt
A world up, she's the one to break it all down

I won't stop breathing in the waiting I'll drown

Burnt, itching in a rage you walked out
A world a single life I take it on now

I won't stop breathing in the waiting I'll drown

Desperate I created a world
I operate, the weekends are over
All dug out, oh ooh ooh
Check the lie, I'm everyone, oh
I'm so divine, the wicked narrator
Wanted out, oh ooh ooh

A single man I'm born
You don't want me to talk exology
A rum, a love, a kill, you celebrate a long hostility
I see the world you owned around my back
Not only war you send, you want my pride

Desperate I created a world
I operate, the weekends are over
All dug out, oh ooh ooh
Check the lie, I'm everyone, oh
I'm so divine, the wicked narrator
Wanted out, oh ooh ooh
