Living undesigned
I've spent a lifetime fornicating you
Oh, shame on you
I sent you on this route
I caught you and I know you feel my view
I feel yours too

Show me I'm alive in you
The message in your mind
So let me see the love you're feeling
Closing my design in you

Dreaming of this life
Blown in now, you set it on you now
I feel you now
Temperature is down
Create internal bruise, you're freaking out
I feel it now

Show me I'm alive in you
The message in your mind
So let me see the love you're feeling
Closing my design in you

Skills are the end of emotions in my
Key to the lock of a game you win by Looking no further, my words are in sight
She's over the line, she told art she won't survive
Call my bluff
She called mine

Show me I'm alive in you
The message in your mind
So let me see the love you're feeling
Closing my design in you

I'm alive, do not deny the wrath, you know I'm you...
