Got lost in the darkness consuming my soul
Never been told how to keep up with the score ive been around, ive been draggin' them down ive been trying to find what im looking for homeless, with no place to rest always been told theres nothing more than this ive been grabbing, ive been crawling them down

never knowing where to go, never making a sound Pick me up i'm lost in you.
Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Can't you see in me theres something else
Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Would it be so clear for someone else

Well i'm standing here speechless no one hearing a sound no one else here to beat my head on the ground alot of things that we could not mention keeping on looking back (back) in the wrong direction weakness never knowing my place, never knowing how to stop, or get out of the race

ive been grabbing, ive been crawling them down
never knowing where to go, never making a sound
Pick me up i'm lost in you.
Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Can't you see in me theres something else
Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Would it be so clear for someone else

Pick me up (yeah, yeah, yeah)

Pick me up (yeah, yeah, yeah)

Pick me up (yeah)

I'm lost again
Can't you see in me theres something else
Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Would it be so clear for someone else

Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Can't you see in me there's something else

Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Would it be so clear for someone else
Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Pick me up (yeah)

Pick me up (yeah)
I'm lost again
Would it be so clear for someone else
