"Burn Like The Sun"

As I followed the sound I felt insane the mountain called for me today no last goodbyes, I went away my heart told me I'd find a way When I'm alone I see your face I'd rather die than leave you babe still some times it hurts cause as time goes by

I see your heart burn, burn, burn like the sun burn, burn like the sun
burn, burn like the sun
burn, burn like the sun

So many tears I've wiped away from all the lies I had to say thru it all you lead the way and now I'm not cold anymore if I should die, should I lay I'd clutch your hand from worlds away relive my life in a moments time

I've seen your heart burn, burn, burn like the sun
burn burn like the sun
burn burn like the sun
burn burn like the sun
