I got this feeling that I can't explain
Outside myself inside I'm the same
It's all a drag, life rearranged
I'm just hanging out
I don't know why I feel this way
All mixed up, nothing to say
I guess I might find that one day
I stop fooling around
I really really don't wanna go
I really really don't wanna stay
My head is spinning round and around
Underground now
Singin to the sound that I've found
That I've found now
My head is spinning round and around
And I'm down now
Singin to the sound that I've found
In this town now
Don't want your help or sympathy
I'm not the person I used to be
Times have changed now I'm on my own
Can't you see I'm checking out
I don't like the way you criticize
Don't need you as friend of mine
I'm not caught up in your uncertainty
I'm glad you're gone, now I can be me
I really really don't wanna go
I really really don't wanna stay
My head is spinning round and around
Underground now
Singin to the sound that I've found
That I've found now
My head is spinning round and around
And I'm down now
Singin to the sound that I've found
In this town now
Don't like work
Just wanna play
Do what I want
And not what you say
I know one day
It'll come to an end

But until then
I wont pretend
Ruffin it up on the party line
Step in time
My head is spinning round and around
Underground now
Singin to the sound that I've found
That I've found now
My head is spinning round and around
And I'm down now
Singin o the sound that I've found
