"So Sad To Say"

i'll let you in on how i'm feeling you've got a lot of nerve you'll get what you deserve granted this feelings unappealing i'm bitter, i'll admit now i've gotta deal with it just one more thing okay it so s-sad to say, it's,
so sad to say
what we had has gone away
ya could say its sad
think of what we could have had i'll let you out without resistance parting this way is not, the way we ever thought, in fact i always thought we'd go the distance but we went nowhere quick so sad it makes me sick
its so s-sad to say, it's,

my animosity has, got the best of me it been feeding off of sadness deep inside that'll fade i pray and in time it will i know so far its fading slow
just one more thing okay
it's so s-sad to say, it's,
