This time we're in over our heads
I am sure that this has got to end
I don't want you
What will it take to get that through your head?
Well you've crossed the line
Now it's time that this unwinds

If I have to hear her voice again
I could drink up until I drown in it
You put a hole right through my chest
Only to find there was nothing left
So go on and put your foot where your mouth is

Go on with him, he'll fit right in
What's wrong, can you not raise your chin?
The worst part of the situation
Is if you died tonight
I would not mind

If I have to hear her voice again
I could drink up until I drown in it
You put a hole right through my chest
Only to find there was nothing left
So go on and put your foot where your mouth is

You put a hole right through my chest
Only to find there was nothing left
So go on and put your foot where your mouth is

Oh God, forgive me if I have to leave this now
I've picked my battles, this is where I stand my ground
But you think you know everything about me
You must have gone outside your head, your head

If I have to hear her voice again
I could drink up until I drown

If I have to hear her voice again
I could drink up until I drown in it
You put a hole right through my chest
Only to find there was nothing left

So go on and put your foot where your mouth is

You put a hole right through my chest

Only to find there was nothing left

So go on and put your foot where your mouth is

So go on and put your foot where your mouth is

Yeah, go on and put your foot down
