You died, you died with nothing left to offer but
These lies, these lies
And everything she dreamed for was lying on the floor

And when you took her everything
You threw away her faith in you
So ignore the problem, yeah, ignore the problem
And then you'll pay for what you get

You've been running out the back door, baby
She'd do anything to see that boy again
And now the thought of separation
Takes the blame away

This has been unbearable
You can't believe this is happening
I beg to differ, I beg to differ
Yeah, I beg to differ

You've been running out the back door, baby
She'd do anything to see that boy again
And now the thought of separation
Takes the blame away

You've been running out the back door, baby
She'd do anything to see that boy again
And now the thought of separation
Takes the blame away

Oh, is this real?
Is there anyone there to save you?

Oh, is this real?
Is there anyone there to save you?

You've been running out the back door, baby
She'd do anything to see that boy again
And now the thought of separation
Takes the blame away

You've been running out the back door, baby

She'd do anything to see that boy again
And now the thought of separation
Takes the blame away

You've been running out the back door, baby
She'd do anything to see that boy again
And now the thought of separation
Takes the blame away
