Life can be so wonderful
Real love this time you fool
And then you wake up
And you'd chew off your own arm
Or face the only graduate
From Satan's school of charm

Your mama callin' you
I hear you mama callin' you
You'd better stand and face the truth boy
I hear you mama callin' you

I drink three six packs
Just so I can look at your face
Finally

You give respect, you get respect
And you just don't know your place
Finally

You never learn, you always burn
Now I've got you off of my case
Finally

I drank three six packs
Just so I could look at your face
Finally

See you

Over, finished, gone, done out

She's not the one you married, not the one who cared
Maybe it's her evil twin that got you by the short hairs
Can you live without it? Can you be a man?
Can you tell her take a walk and stick it up her can?

Your mama callin you
I hear your mama callin you
You'd better stand and face the truth boy
I hear your mama callin you

I drink three six packs
Just so I can look at your face
Finally

You give respect, you get respect
And you just don't know your place
Finally!

You never learn, you always burn
Now I've got you off my case
Finally

I drank three six packs
Just so I could look at your face
Finally

See you

Over, finished, gone, done out

I hear your mama callin' you
I hear you mama callin' you
Now go and pack your bags [Incomprehensible]
I hear you mama callin' you

Rape my mind, led down the wrong path
One to many rides and you crashed
Had the looks but had no class
Steal my life and taint my past
Sorry, I don't mean to laugh

How long have you been waiting to be set free?
Don't you know it's easy as 1, 2, 3
Don't be a fagot now that's the key
Don't you know it's easy as 1, 2, 3

Now I'm free, now I'm free
Me, me, me
Finally

Over, finished, gone, done out
Over, finished, gone, done out
Over, finished, gone, done out
Over, finished, gone, done out

See you
