So I say to you
So you look at me
What do I have to do?
And you look at me
So I say to you
You just look at me
What the hell do you see?

Do I hate you?
No, I don't think so
Words don't describe what my feelings know
Do I hate you?
No, and I refuse to go
Down to your level just to feed my ego
Do I hate you?
Yes, I got it off my chest
I hate you for making me regress
Stop, stop, stop, stop

Looking at me
What do you see?
I don't see in black and white
I see things in wrong and right

Do I hate you?
Think, it takes a man to think
And to admit his ignorance
You can't just look at my face
You can't judge me by my race
We gotta
Stop, stop, stop, stop
What do you see?
So I say to you
Just look at me
I say to you
Different and

All this hatred
All this hatred
And do I hate you?
I can't take it
All this hatred

You may not know this
We may be different
Different but equal
Different and free
You may not know this
We may be different
Different but equal
Different and free

All this hatred
All this hatred
And do I hate you?
I can't take it
Stop this hatred now

Do I hate you? Do I hate you?
Do I hate you? Yes
Do I hate you and placate you? Hey
Do I hate you? Do I hate you? No

No, I'm not that arrogant
To not admit my ignorance
And do you think I really care
When you sit there and you stare?
I can't help feel sorry for you
And maybe even pity too
My answer's no and this is true
Do I hate you?
All this hatred
All this hatred
I can't take it
All this hatred
You may not know this
We may be different
Different but equal
Different and free
