"Nobody Knows Anything"

I've been choking on the air that you've been giving me

It's all a game to you, to me it's an atrocity

As you add another loop onto my noose

I lose all sense of what is abuse

'Cause it's always been a bone of contention

This game of what it is that I've done for you

I've given you everything for nothing in return

And I'm so tired of bleeding for the respect that I've earned

Because no, nobody knows, nobody knows

Because nobody knows anything

I don't know how much generosity that I can take

Until I leave a trail of bodies lying in my wake

How many times do I lose my mind 'til I realize?

Give me the high hat and you think that I should compromise
