(Anthrax)

It was a day to remember, it was a day to remember
Twice as hard as long
That was the day, that was the day
That I convinced myself, that I found my god
That I found my god..

I tip my cap and I step up
I fix myself to the right
I move right into the firing zone
And I scream drink or fight
It's just a matter of respect
Or is that something I missed
This ain't no peace train that you are
Jumping on
So shake my hand and shake it strong
And everybody come along

(am I)
Long (am I)
Strong (am I)
Everybody come along
(am I)
Long (am I)
Strong (am I)
Everybody come along

Sometimes I can't stop the shaking
Sometimes I can't stop the shaking
Atleast I know I'm not dead
Atleast I know I'm not dead
I don't remember whose blood this is
I don't remember whose blood this is
I've got a hammer inside my head
I've got a hammer inside my head

I get put up, I get put down
And I don't even try
I've burned a bridge, I've burned a whole town
Cause I'm fortified
I tell the truth or just gilded lie

And then I charge like a bull with his balls tied
This ain't no peace train that you are
Jumping on
So shake my hand and shake it strong
And everybody come along

(am I)
Long (am I)
Strong (am I)
Everybody come along
(am I)
Long (am I)
Strong (am I)
Everybody come along

A heavy dose of reality
With a side of piss & vinegar
A free drink at the bar and you'll take it
Take it, take it, take it...

So shake my hand and shake it strong
And everybody come along

(am I)
Long (am I)
Strong (am I)
Everybody come along
(am I)
Long (am I)
Strong (am I)
Everybody come along

A heavy dose of reality
With a side of piss & vinegar
A swift kick in the ass and you'll
T, t, t, t, take it, take it, take it...
T, t, t, t, take it, take it, take it...
