originally by Iron Maiden.

Written by Steve Harris and Paul Di'Anno.

Unchain the colors
before my eyes,
Yesterday's sorrows,
tomorrow's white lies.
Scan the horizon,
the clouds take me higher,
I shall return
from out of fire.

Tears for remembrance,
and tears for joy,
Tears for somebody
and this lonely boy.
Out in the madness,
the all seeing eye,
Flickers above us,
to light up the sky.

Unchain the colors
before my eyes,
Yesterday's sorrows,
tomorrow's white lies.
Scan the horizon,
the clouds take me higher,
I shall return
from out of fire.
