"Away"

Cancer ridden faces - Hear what my name is - I'm a tired man trying to let go - Of my past and of my future
- Hard I try but I feel it down Below - And I try and walk away from the pain in my life
- And I search but I can't find a reason to die - Give me one more chance just one more Chance - Once more chance and I'll take it all away - All away - One more chance and I'll take it all away - I'm falling in myself - An empty Heartache that is forcing me to change - And I promise I won't let myself be the man I was back then - So I take it all away - All away - One more Chance and I take it all away - So I try and break my soul - It feels like I'm losing control - I've come to far to fall again - All I need is one more time - Just one more time - And I'll take it all away
