Can't you see that the world has been deceived - We've been masked by tyranny, Overrun by wealth and greed
- And the price of life Has been down to feed your wealth and keep your - crown - Of thorns you wear but I'm not scared to fight for right or loose my - life but - I won't Die for you - But I'm still ready to die for something - I won't die for you - But I'm still ready to die for something else - And we will still be here Waiting when they come home - Just like before - And I hope that the blood of the children stains your dreams
- It stains your dreams - For all These years you have manufactured fears - The problem that your facing here is we still have our eyes and ears - We will not stand another day, The sacrifice the price we pay - Is that you throw our lives away when we don't get to have a say - But - I won't die for you - But I'm still ready to Die for something - I won't die for you - But I'm still ready to die for something else - And we will still be here waiting when they come home - Just Like before - And I hope that the blood of the children stains your dreams - It stains your dreams - Will we ever learn - Or will the violence kill us all
- As we slowly watch our world fall - I see their faces - You can't erase this - And in my dreams I still see peace - But at this rate it will never be - I will never die for you
