Into the morning, got me through the night
I've seen the light, I see the light
I love of what I need, I've got greed
I've been a sinner for as long as I know
So help me understand, the little that I know

Shadow dancing with my spirit
Got to face your demon on your own
Take my body and put it through the dust
I've been buried in the crust together now
So help me understand, the little that I know
Together now, together now

It's us now, it's us now
And there's them, and there's them
And should we start again
Together now, together now

It's us now, it's us now
And there's them, and there's them
And should we start again
Together now, together now

The descendants of Christ and it's you
Will you help me I'm confused
What you gonna do with the little that I know?
With the little that I got
We're together now, we're together

It's us now
And there's them, and there's them
And should we start again
Together now, together now

It's us now, it's us now
And there's them, and there's them
And should we start again
Together now, together now
