yeah she won't sing for nobody else but me but she sings so beautifully yeah i won't bleed for nobody else and i when i bleed she likes to tell me

yeah we don't belong
we can't fit in
we don't belong anywhere but here
we don't belong
anywhere but here

and i used to think that i could be much better than this now i'm starting to think i'm no one and i wouldn't change you for the world even if i could cause (...)

we don't belong
we can't fit in
we don't belong
anywhere but here

we don't

and we've tried to love alone like everybody else yeah we did but in the end we still find we're much better off like this

we don't belong
we can't fit in
we don't belong
anywhere but here
yeah we oh we don't

that's okay cause we belong anywhere but here
we don't belong
