We've been going back and forth
I'm waiting for the day you call me
I think I can do it on my own

Swinging like a pendulum
The time ticks by
Until it's gone
I'm thinking about the sun that's never shown

Time is gonna start
It's never gonna stop
Time is running
I'm going into shock
Cause you're too late, too late, too late

Never quite the effort maker
I see you're not nearly ready
I think I can do it on my own
Just too late and still too little
I just seem to miss you crawling
Never thought the day would come, I know

Time is gonna start
It's never gonna stop
Time is running
I'm going into shock
Cause you're too late, too late, too late

Time is gonna start
It's never gonna stop
Time is running
I'm going into shock
Cause you're too late, too late, too late

You're too late
Too late, too late
You're too late
Not quite the same
