so i'll sit here waiting while the world will pass me you can't help me you walk by me i can't say a word
i'm helpless
can't help it you can't stop me now

'cause i wanna be bad for you you just lead the way i'll follow i don't wanna think it through never give a thought tomorrow lost in thoughts of empty dispositions my position stops me can't stand up i can't breathe you're telling me you're not for me but i'll just make you see that i wanna be bad for you

you just lead the way i'll follow

i'll never be like your kind of girl never be right there in the world but i'll entertain the notion that i could live there to
