[Verse 1 - Lil Shade]

I was calm but my palms started to get sweaty stomach got queezy
you was at a party drinking bacardi i didnt like it but i just gripped my teeth and bit my lip and tried to forget about it but i couldnt i just couldnt and wouldnt let you get away with it i lost it so i jumped in my car with my gun loaded found out my motor blew i fucking exploded but it just made me madder cuz my car wouldnt start but that didnt matter
i got to walking then you started calling and we started talking but that shit got us no where i was almost there but i turned around cuz i knew you was with other guys when you stumbled in the front door
at four i seen the guilt in your eyes the lies well you better sit the fuck
down and listen to me this time at first it was alright but now i got to speak my mind i thought you wanted to be mine how could you just fuck
tim yea tim it was him wasnt it fuck you how could you do this to me
just lock me out the blue you dont even wanna know what i wanna do
dont even start im tired of your lies your just lucky my car
wouldnt start in the beginning cuz

[Chorus - Mr. Chris]

In the beginning you just think about it once and thats
all it takes is
one time until you dont care if your about to do time in
the beginning

[Lil Shade]

but in do time you will realize she lied and it aint worth
doing time

over some girls lies look in these eyes cuz this is just
the beginning

I really couldnt believe she could do this to me but fuck it its done
and over with its in the past but you just passed by and gaspd when you seen my white ass i bet it sucks that you cant grab what you
cant have its simple it was you that made me so pissed off and mad
it wasnt my dad so hold up let me grab my pencil and help you float
your boat oh shit i forgot you already done sunk your boat with me you
dont even have a board to float your sinking now to the bottom of the pit
but your at the top of one thing the top of my shit list now what you gonna do i guess all you got to do is do what you gotta do to get through its all on you i did what i had to do its like im under the light
rocking the mic with my bullshit that you'll probably never get i hope you know not every rapper raps while there on the chronic but yep dont worry im on it i had it ever since the beginning

[Chorus - Mr. Chris]

[Lil Shade]

[Outro - Lil Shade]

Yea this is just the beginning you now know you rocking with the best
Lil Shade, Mr. Chris Hotline Records man aiyyo we out
Ha Ha Ha
