Alot of people just you know judge you before they get to know you and if they know what you been through in your life good or bad they would understand why you are how you are everything you ever been through stays bottled up deep inside you and sooner or later it will change you it will change how you act how you view things i know this because it changed me all your memories you want to forget will always be in you no matter what you do they will always tear you up even if you dont think about them and when it comes up to where you think about them and you start getting emotional thats where your gonna change you gonna feel happy and shit and once you put your head down and you sigh your heads gonna come back up nd anybody your with is gonna see the hate, the evil, the emotions, the pain, and most of all the anger in your eyes and i got alot on my shoulders man i mean my dad left me when i was 3 my mom was always at bingo or if shes home she always had an attitude problem you couldnt even talk to her without getting yelled at close family members dying young i once was jumped by 6 dudes in tops parking lot bullies in school always picking on me but really alot of the shit i go through aint much different then what people go through in everyday life the only difference is im able to turn my life around and make something good out of it and write music but really its just the same shit only a different person but you know what i could give a fuck less about everything now so if you dont like me FUCK YOU!
