[Verse 2 - Mr Chris]

This is Mr. Chris in this bitch what you know about that Lil Shade got up with me and layed some tracks
With my beats mixed with some made by himself Oh shit yes mine were made by myself Bitch you listening this is Mr. Chris reppin hotline records
And your fucking crazy if you think you could do better Getting into trouble worst than dennis the menace Lil Shade dont kno when to quit hes always the one to end up in prison
You seen me before your girl just tried to hide me Like R Kelly trapped in the closet yea that was me Bringing Shade into the game, just waitin on that single to release his fame Hes been patiently waitin for the paper sittin and strugglin in pain Viloence of every sort gettin into fights he claims it was always like that I came in and gave him a break i noticed him takin his anger out i his raps
But this is what the game is all about What you think our raps is from our ass that we've been pullin out

[Chorus - Lil Shade]

Theres my homie with all my bloods Get your ass here and show some love and uhh welcome to new york city i said welcome to new york city Any time any place we'll go Strictly bloods is the way we roll
At any time the shit could get sticky That's right man the bloods will get snippy
