We've been going through some hard times
And they only seem to be getting harder
It's obvious it's been affecting us
Distancing you from me farther

We're so close
We've come so far
All this work will soon pay off

Though it seems hard right now
Somehow- it will be just fine
I know you can't see it now
Somehow- it will be just fine

We've both been under pressure
Pressure that's been building up for quite awhile
And it's all too easy
To let things get out of hand
And I don't want things to be this way
I just want to succeed

We're so close
We've come so far
All this work will soon pay off

Though it seems hard right now
Somehow- it will be just fine
I know you can't see it now
Somehow- it will be just fine

When everything is discouraging
And you feel like there's no hope
Just try to hold on a little longer

We're so close
We've come so far
All this work will soon pay off

Though it seems hard right now
Somehow- it will be just fine
I know you can't see it now

Somehow- it will be just fine
