theres no other way
in the multitude population, neighborhood i look for you
do you look for me its the only way you're gonna get topography up off the feet gotta settle down and watch the dust gonna read the book all the rules that must sets the time to set the pace you took me closer one step closer to that place you take me one step closer now i know we're there
its better now than ever now i know you'll stay

and another way
its a different world theres a shining light and a darkened world and it waited takes a path to a different place, different time different vibe

now i know you're here
much better now than ever

found another way, another added trip theres a population, in the neighborhood i'm lookin for you
you look for me its the only way to get to where we want to be

and now i know you'll stay you're taking me one step closer
now i know you'll stay with me
now i know you're there with me
