White and white
I am in the white cube
Whiter than white
And alone, I'm waiting for her phone call
She knows how to tease me
A face like a cake
I lik her red red hair and black eyes
Her skinny knees dipped in spicy smell
I'm left in here
The moon is now getting wite
She teases me
She knows how to tease me
A face like a cake
The bed time music rings in my head
Don't be so hard on me
I fix TV to make it tinge
The room is still getting white
She teases me...
