Time to be awoken, you will know
Time to feel shaken, you will show

And if your problems seem too long
Communication breaks down slow
You will soon be over them
And if your travel seems too far
Communication breaks down slow
You will soon be over there

Time to feel waken, you will know
Time to feel shaken, you will show

And if your problems seem too long
Communication breaks down slow
You will soon be over them
And if your travel seems too far
Communication breaks down slow
You will soon be over there

And you will like feeling strange
Over and over

And if your problems seem too long
Communication breaks down slow
You will soon be over them
And if your travel seems too far
Communication breaks down slow
You will soon be over there, there

And you will like feeling strange
Over and over
And you will like feeling strange
Over and over
