Beneath the silver moon
I held you endlessly
And danced the night with you
Cause you were meant for me
The lights above the skies
Were burning in your eyes
I gave my heart to you
That paper lantern night

But when you went away
All the lights turned faint and gray
All the darkness in the night
Never thought that we say goodbye
So I hold it all inside
But I never will forget
Close my eyes and think of when
All the stars were shining bright
Like the light shining in your eyes
As we danced all through the night
Underneath the lantern sky
And I held your hands in mine
Underneath the lantern sky

A magical surprise
You gave me there that night
You whispered in my ear
The words I longed to hear
I wish that we could stay
Below the thousand lights
And never let it fade
Our paper lantern night

Beneath the silver moon
I held you endlessly
And danced the night with you
Cause you were meant for me
The lights above the skies
Were burning in your eyes
I gave my heart to you
That paper lantern night

But when you went away
All the lights turned faint and gray
All the darkness in the night
Never thought that we say goodbye
So I hold it all inside
But I never will forget
Close my eyes and think of when
All the stars were shining bright
Like the light shining in your eyes
As we danced all through the night
And I held your hands in mine

A magical surprise
You gave me there that night
The words I long to hear
I wish that we could stay

Beneath the silver moon
I held you endlessly
And dance the night with you

A magical surprise
You gave me there that night
You whispered in my ear
The words I long to hear
I wish that we could stay
