When moments of the past
I thought would always last When time was on my side the best years of my life

I'd dream a simple dream but things aren't what they seem when passions fade away the memories made us stayed I still see how we use to be

[chorus]
Somewhere in time,
our love was fine,
but then the years just kept passing by Said our good-byes so many times, still holding on to somewhere in time.

Still living in the past When love was all we had Can't seem to let you go Your all I've ever known

If I could break these chains Will love find me again but something holds me back A dream that I once had I believe one day you will see [chrous] 3x
