(Gillian Welch/Matt Rollings)

Now the night— turned pink
On the eastern edges
But the sky is cold and still
And I wonder if it— the sunrise
Warning the desert
Or the lights of Tucson from over the hill

It— a hard way to love you
This long distance romance
Always stopping and starting again
I don't mind the miles
When I'm out on the highway
But even when I'm with you the miles just don't end

And I'm two days from knowing
Whether I can be strong
If I spend one more night in your arms
So I've a mind to keep going
And drive right past your door
But I'm two days from knowing for sure

As the night closes down
It fills the horizon
And stretches it out at the seams
And I'm not sure if tomorrow
I'm gonna be any closer
To closing the distance between you and me

And I'm two days from knowing
Whether I can be strong
If I spend one more night in your arms
So I've a mind to keep going
And drive right past your door
But I'm two days from knowing for sure

We've a mind to keep going
And drive right past your door
But I'm two days from knowing for sure
