You will be sorry

There a little voice inside my head

Telling me that soon you will regret

'Cause you know that everything you do will come back to you

So listen to these words I say

Baby, you'll be sorry

So you better stop calling

Cause I won't be there when you realize your mistakes

Baby, you'll be falling

And you're gonna be haunted

By the memories, oh baby wait and see

Baby, you'll be sorry

You're gonna be crawling

Gonna make you wish that you never looked my way

When that little voice inside your head

Tells you what a mess you have made

Let me tell you everything goes round and around
again

Come back to you in the end

You will see without me, the errors of you past

And I'll be here just waiting boy and I'll have the last laugh

Baby, you'll be sorry

So you better stop calling

Cause I won't be there when you realize your mistakes

Baby, you'll be falling

And you're gonna be haunted

By the memories, oh baby wait and see

Baby, you'll be sorry

You're gonna be crawling

Gonna make you wish that you never looked my way

When that little voice inside your head

Tells you what a mess you have made

Let me tell you everything goes round and around
again

Come back to you in the end
