SISTER

Vers 1: Sister where did you go? I know that's what you're thinking.
But please don't judge me, when you get older you'll understand that I tried.
I wish that I could explain, but it's way to complicated.
You're so young, and I wish I knew..

Chorus: Why, it has gone this far that
I barely know who you are
But i'm waiting..

Vers 2: I know that she told you that I don't even care that much about you.
But it's not true.
'Cus somehow, someday, we will meet again.
I just don't know when.
The distance make no sense.
Tell me:

Chorus: Why, it has gone this far that
I barely know who you are
But i'm waiting..

Bridge: Is it too late to make things right? (Is it too late to make things right?)
Now that we're living different lives.
Tell me:

Chorus: Why, it has gone this far that
I barely know who you are.
Why, it has gone this far that
I barely know who you are.
But i'm waiting. I'm waiting..
