Barefoot in the bed 'a your truck
On a blanket lookin' up
Half a moon peekin' down at us
From underneath the clouds

Teenage kids sneakin' out again
Heard the thunder rollin' in
We were fallin' the moment when
It all came pourin' down

The Georgia rain
On the Jasper County clay
Couldn't wash away
What I felt for you that day

Just you and me
Down an old dirt road
Nothin' in our way
Except for the Georgia rain

Cotton fields remember when Flash 'a lightnin' drove us in
We were soaked down to the skin
By the time we climbed inside

And I don't remember what was poundin' more
Heart in my chest or the hood of that Ford
As the sky fell in, the storm clouds poured
Worlds away outside

The Georgia rain
On the Jasper County clay
Couldn't wash away
All the love we made

Just you and me
Down that old dirt road
No one saw a thing
Except for the Georgia rain

Screen door flappin' in the wind
Same ol' house I grew up in

Can't believe I'm back again
After all these years away

You fixed your daddy's house up nice
I saw it yesterday when I drove by
Looks like you've made yourself a real good life
What else can I say

The Georgia rain
On the Jasper County clay
Couldn't wash away
The way I loved you to this day

The ol' dirt road's paved over now
Nothin' here's the same
Except for the Georgia rain
