Hold on like there's no tomorrow
There can be no sorrow
Right here where we stand
And living only for this moment

All we've ever wanted
Is right here in our hands
And some will say that we're sure to fall
Try and build their walls between us

No way over it
No way around it
If we want it
We have to go through it

Fight for a love
And the world tries to break us down
But the world will bend and the fight will end
Love will always win

Hold on till we see tomorrow
There is time to borrow
Till we own our own
Walk on and our hearts will lead us

But our hearts will need us
To be steady and strong
So we can stand and face the fire
Burning higher and higher

No way over it
No way around it
If we want it
We have to go through it

Fight for a love
And the world tries to break us down
But the world will bend and the fight will end
Love will always win

No, we know that a rainbow ends
Beyond dark skies

No way over it
No way around it, no
If we want it
We have to go through it

Fight for a love
And the world tries to break us down
But the world will bend and the fight will end
And the world will bend and the fight will end
Love will always win
