Title : All I Want For Christmas Is Us what to get the girl who has everything all i want for christmas is you heres my list i checked it twice wasnt good wasnt bad i was naughty & nice i've had my eye on you all year long now i know for sure wouldn't even have to try you on no need for gift return it's gonna be a cold winter but i wont need the heat to keep me warm as long as you wrap yourself around me on christmas morning

and weather its now or later as long as its before you go my love is always in your favour and now you know that all i want for christmas sweet like a candy cane hanging from the tree i will stripe you red & green when you hit me like a sugar rush dont care for the other stuff this season, you're all that i need they say that wishing for you is like wishing for snow in california but you know that i could prove them all wrong cause my love is true i simply adore ya

as long as you wrap yourself around me

i can say that ive been good all year im makin' resolutions to get you here and if it means being better than whatever no sweat well i bet my halls that i deck for the cause & santa clause, he knows what my intentions are even dismissin' misletoe so i can get to know ya first of all we're singing oh my god you're the reason that i decorate my yard

as long as its before you go no
now you know that all i want for christmas all i want for christmas is us
