we me out of luck
so far from the truth
we talked and we laughed there was nothing we couldnt do so high on a cloud never would have thought to look down but now i know, i know better now when its good, youll know cause it wont compare to anything let it be or set it free after all its only trying if it dont work out well then its only a minor casualty now i know, i know better now live to learn, and learn to love i wanna know about it all i wanna run and take the jump cause id be happy just to fall for you....

nothing i wouldnt do
for you....
nothing i could do
and in a split second, maybe just for a minute i would let you get the best of me give me a reason not to go and i wont kiss my cheek and win me over with all your funny jokes i think i could sit with you and do absolutely nothing and now i know, im much better now...

finding out about it all running fast and loving the chance if only just to fall

for you...

for you...

nothing i couldnt do and in a split a second, maybe just for a minute

i would let you get the best of me...

i would show you everything cause in my mind

youve stayed the same eyes bright, big smile on your face seems like it was only just yesterday and i miss you...

yeah i do...

cause for you....

nothing i would do..

and its true...

in a split second, maybe just for a minute

cause you showed me just how sweet it could be...
