Wait for you
I would forever
Turn my back on you?
I would never however long it may take that's how long I will wait for you...

Maybe you just need some time alone take a trip and go back home think about the things that you've done you know you don't have to please everyone around you...

These days its hard to find some time to get away just enough to realize that everything's gonna be ok take a break from it all learn how to take a fall

You should know that you've made quite an impression on me and there's no place that I would rather be than stuck with you somewhere, anywhere and just because people talk, that doesn't mean you have to care
These days it seems harder and harder to get away ease my mind, clear my throat, soon enough for you to hear me say that I want you to know that I'm never gonna let you go when things aren't fun that's when you know you've got a problem but every problem was made for problem solving but you were never problem for me except when I let you go cause I was too blind to see, the answer, right in front of me these days its so hard to find the time to get away take a deep breath and a step back enough to see that everything's working out fine its only a matter of time
