Despite all I've tried
I just can't deny
I think it's clear
It shouldn't be so hard and it started to feel wrong in here

Baby,
all this time I thought I knew you Baby,
turned out that you lied, that nothing was true

This will never be what I wanted
This will never be what I dreamed of
And now I think it's time
that we say goodbye
'cause this love is over
Now I'm gona let this go and move on Now I'm gona let you go and stay strong
And now I think it's time
that we say goodbye
'cause we're over

I needed you and I loved you like nothing before But everything's changed and now I need so much more

Baby,
all this time I thought I knew you Baby, turned out that you lied, that nothing was true

This will never be what I wanted
And now I think it's time
that we say goodbye
'cause this love is over
Now I'm gona let this go and move on
Now I'm gona let you go and stay strong

And now I think it's time
that we say goodbye
'cause we're over

How I've cried
From all your lies
But now those tears have dried
And I'm alright
Yes I'm alright

This will never be what I wanted
that we say goodbye
that we say goodbye
