Not fear, nor tears can reach me now
The light seems so clear as the night fades away
Behold of thy flame, below of all shame
Come conquer me sweet dreams of paradise

Dusk drawn hither to my evening star
A glance
(In thy mirror)
The trance
(Of thy mirror)
Venus through the looking glass

Dance so frail and lost in the fields afar
Cast
(Off thy mourning)
Clasp
(Life and glory)
Venus through the looking glass

The sense of angels in veils of dawn
Like he runs forever among thy halls
The pale horizons are closing down
The reasons for living are lost somehow

Cross
(My heart with a glance upon the star of riddance)
Drift
(Afar like teardrops on the Stygian River)

I'm the nightfall and wizard that summon thee
You're the blizzard that drape my eyes
I'm thy sorrow and vein of obscurity
You're the dagger that cuts

Shivers on the bleak horizon
Profound words you're my frailty
Shivers on the bleak horizon
Profound words you're my frailty
Shivers on the bleak horizon
Profound words you're my frailty
