What do I say?
To make this
Right!
A slip of the tongue
Whoa oh oh oh oh!

On our last thread
Please make this
Night!
Not our last one
There's more to the story than this

These words are not worth
Are not worth all these teardrops
Don't be afraid darling
Cuz it's not over yet

I never meant to walk away from you
Turn around and watch our sun set slowly
Foreign hands to hold will never do
All my secrets lie in your eyes only

Know I had to walk away from you
Turn around and watch the page burn slowly
Foreign hearts to hold will have to do
But our past remains in our hearts always

Watch your mouth
And hold your tongue
Words start wars
Wars that can't be won

Words wage wars that never can be won!

-This song is about the process of losing some one you love-
