looking into desperate eyes tell them you don't care (that we don't care) we live our lives in luxury, building castles in the air.

sick of sitting by
and pretending it's alright love enough to go enough to speak your mind and let them know what's in your heart and what's in your soul to fight injustices only they know it's hard to change our selfish ways it seems impossible we're too wrapped up in our own lives to be their miracles

sick of sitting by
when we know it's not right it's in our handsâ€¦!
