When I first tasted your love
I knew I'd never get enough
'Coz I'm hooked, hooked on you
When you turn on your love light
You burn me but it's all right
'Coz I'm hooked, hooked on you

Hooked on it
The fire that's burning in your eyes
Hooked on it
I just can't disguise how I feel
What can I do? Hooked on you

You gave me just one look
And I swear, that's all it took
And I was hooked, hooked on you
This heart is afflicted
My body is addicted
Yeah, it's true, I'm hooked on you

Hooked on it
One touch of your hand
Hooked on it
I can't understand, you don't know
What you put me through

Hooked on it, hooked on it
Hooked on it, hooked on it
Hooked on it, hooked on it
