You say you're not afraid
Behind your walls of pride
They keep the world away
But some thing's trapped inside

I'll go any way
The wind blows
And you know
The storm comes and the river will run

You better hold on to the moment
'Cause it may never come again

Long time gone
Where do we go from here
Long time gone away

The voice of reason begs
The fighting takes its toll
You're bangin' big square pegs
Into little round holes

But I'll go
Anyplace your heart goes
And you know
The music plays and the heart obeys

You gotta keep this thing together
But you don't know the why or how
It's getting hard to find forever
In the state of here and now

Long time gone
Where do we go from here
Long time gone, gone

Time gone away
It's been a long, long time gone

Long time gone
Where do we go from here
Long time gone, gone
