just when you thought it was over,
the sky turned black and we all fell to earth, dead in our tracks,
we were frozen in fact,
choking to breath,
then came the seas,
wash away impurities,
wash away all that could end me

everyone will be washed away, drowning in the hell that we made,
i can not believe that our end is so near,
everyone will be washed away,
drowning in the hell that we made,

standing at the end of our world breathing in,
the chaos behold,
none will be found,
its all toppling down,
cities will see,
none could believe,
wash away impurities,
wash away all that could end me

drowning in the hell that we made,
i can not believe that our end is so near,
everyone will be washed away,
drowning in the hell that we made,
i can not believe that our end is so near

save me,
save me from what will end all this world,
save us,
save us from the end,
save us from ourselves,
save me,

just when you thought it was over, the sky turned black and we all fell to earth(to earth)

everyone will be washed away,
drowning in the hell that we made,
i can not believe that our end is so near,
everyone will be washed away,
drowning in the hell that we made,
i can not believe that our end is so near,
everyone will be washed away,
drowning in the hell that we made,
i can not believe that our end is so near
