"Fallen Strength"

In my arms it has been power.
In my heart it has been a song.
But now there's just darkness.
Crying there deep in my heart.

Chorus:
I'm in this grace.
I'm in this fallen strength.
I mean it.
I mean it.
This is this fallen strength.
Going right into me.

In my arms you're falling baby.
In my heart you're my song.
And now there's just more.
More and more love in my life.

Chorus.

Tell me about it.
Don't tell I'm weak.
When I look up in the shadows.
I wanna see your face again.

ChorusX2

Love, love, love is a grace we need.
