Someday in my life there's trouble.
And then I have to realize it.
Now I seek your face.
It's the dark side of life.
But you know I'll show you.

Nowhere in my life there's just peace.
I just have to realize it.
Now I wander thru the dark.
I know I shouldn't do that.
And you know I'll show you.

In my life it has been a great song.
I just have to say it's gone.
But I see your face before me,
And it's a good side of life.
And you see I'll show you.

You will see I'll show you.
