We stand against every lie they tell
We fight, they lie
'Cause if we fall for the spin they sell
We fight, we die

Orwellesque headlines
We have heard it all before
As the 21st century becomes 1984

The new millennium generation
Will kick down their locked doors
You're gonna hear us sing

We won't go
We won't answer the call
We won't go
We won't answer the call

We know that you're lying
That you never tell the truth
So we won't go
So we won't go
So we won't go

Anymore
Because we don't believe
Yeah, we don't believe

We can't repeat the mistakes of the past
March off to die
But we can take back control of the world
Take back our lives

Why should it be the poor
That die in combat zones?
While congress and their children
Sits safe in their lavish homes?

The new millennium generation
Will kick down their locked doors
They're gonna hear us sing

We won't go
We won't answer the call
We won't go
We won't answer the call

We know that you're lying
That you never tell the truth
So we won't go
So we won't go
So we won't go

Anymore, no

We'll stand as one
We'll say, "We will not go"
We'll stand as one
We'll say, "We will not go"
We'll stand as one

We won't go
We won't answer the call
We won't go
We won't answer the call

We know that you're lying
That you never tell the truth
So we won't go
So we won't go
So we won't go

So we won't go
So we won't go
So we won't go

So we won't go
So we won't go
