the assignment said
with this line tell a story the crowds eyes shot up as the light cut across the sky at the airport drive in on a saturday night where some kids go to make out and others go to start fights and waste away their summer nights

im a boxer im from the southside of town and im the toughest mother fucker around and i know my strategy is in my head as much as my muscle aint no one that can bring me down kuz im the toughest mother fucker and sometimes theres words with more than one meaning dont forget to doubt and think for yourself or else one day when you look round youll find no free press left in your town
