You push and push a people, what are they to do?
Soon this corporate run government will be through See, it doesn't represent the people anymore Big business are pimps, the governments' are whores

We don't need more time to talk over a solution
We know what we need, we need a fucking revolution
We don't need your war machine, or your filthy blood
stained dollars
We've got one thing you don't have, we've got, we've got, we've
Got the numbers, got the numbers, got the numbers
Got the numbers, got the numbers

To you the masses are not even human beings We're dogs that will be grateful for any scraps you leave
But even dogs will only put up with so much abuse
Keep stealing like us, so we're gonna let loose

We don't need more time to talk over a solution
We don't need your war machine, or your filthy blood
stained dollars
We've got one thing you don't have, we've got, we've
got, we've
Got the numbers, got the numbers, got the numbers
Got the numbers, got the numbers

We've got, we've got, we've got, we've got We've got, we've got, we've got the numbers

We don't need more time to talk over a solution
We don't need your war machine, or your filthy blood
stained dollars
We've got one thing you ain't got, we've got, we've got the numbers

We don't need your war machine, or your filthy blood
stained dollars
We've got one thing you don't have, we've got, we've

got, we've
Got the numbers, got the numbers, got the numbers
Got the numbers, got the numbers
