I Can't Stand Being With You

Everything that you did Everything that you said
You may as well be down at the mall cause that's no different, than being at the bar

I saw that look in your eyes
It made me realize that you changed, changed from what you were,
and now you're no better than a pop culture whore
I can't stand being with you

I can't stand the bar scene you're in too Can't you see what you've become, that you swore you'd always snub
It's every fucking thing
I can't stand being with, being with... perched up high on your bar stool Sit there like all the old fools
One day you told me, "I'll never be like them..."

but I don't see a difference from the outside looking in like they could start up a war

All the punks at the bar

Revolution plotted in a bottle, the thought makes the laugh and I turn on some Nirvana
And I can't stand the drugs scene you're in too
I can't stand being with you
It's every fucking thing
Can't you see that what you've become.
I can't stand being, being with you!that you swore you'd always snub?
